

Customer Activities Web Site Security Access Information

WBI Energy Midstream's Customer Activities pages are accessible via our web site at <https://midstream.wbienergy.com>. Access to our Customer Activities pages is through a secure system and requires a unique User ID and Password for each user.

To access the secured, customer-specific areas of our web site, please complete the following forms:

1. Web Site Subscriber Agreement (Submit one form on behalf of each company)
2. Web Site Subscription Request Form (Submit one form for each individual user)

Copies of the Web Site Subscriber Agreement and the Web Site Subscription Request Form may be found in the "Downloads" section of the "Informational Postings" area of our web site at <https://midstream.wbienergy.com>. Completed forms should be returned as directed below.

Upon receipt of the completed form(s), WBI Energy Midstream will set up secured access for each user and send a User ID and Password by email. Your company will be responsible for communicating any changes in a user's level of authorization. Please contact WBI Energy Midstream should any designated users leave your company or no longer require access to customer information.

The secured areas available for access include:

- Contract Review (includes current gathering and FL&U rates)
- Shipper Imbalance
- Shipper Monthly Receipt/Delivery Allocation Statements
- Monthly Gas Gathering Invoices
- Measured Volume Information
